MESSAGE

Given the remarkable progress in infrastructure and social welfare in Kerala, establishing seamless communication between the Government and the public is crucial. The Information and Public Relations Department has been enabling it by meticulously preparing the Media Handbook every year.

Over the years, the Media Handbook has been instrumental as a go-to reference those looking to connect with Government departments, officials, elected representatives, and media entities. I'm sure that the upcoming 2024 edition will continue in this tradition, serving as an invaluable resource for all stakeholders.

Best wishes

PINARAYI VIJAYAN
CHIEF MINISTER, KERALA

MESSAGE

I am pleased to announce the release of the 2024 Media Handbook, an initiative of the Information & Public Relations Department. This handbook, crafted to provide the public with practical information, including essential contact numbers, is a reflection of our unwavering commitment to transparency. It offers an comprehensive overview of print, electronic, and online news media organisations, coupled with detailed insights into various government departments.

Functioning as a robust conduit between the public and media, this handbook facilitates seamless communication through government delivery systems. This initiative, thereby, establishes a pivotal channel for interaction between the government and media, significantly contributing to governance oriented towards the public good. I am confident that this handbook will prove invaluable to a diverse audience, and I extend my heartfelt congratulations to all those involved in this commendable initiative.
