MESSAGE

V. D. SATHEESAN

Chief Minister, Keralam

It is a matter of great pride that the Information and Public Relations Department is releasing the new edition of the Media Handbook. The media plays a significant role in strengthening democracy and is widely recognized as the fourth estate. A democratic society thrives when there is a strong, transparent bond between the government and its citizens. This handbook provides accurate and timely information about the media landscape. Over the years, it has become an indispensable tool not only for media professionals, but also for researchers. officials, and the general public. I am confident that this updated edition will continue to support joumalists in their daily work and strengthen public communication.

V. D. SATHEESAN

MESSAGE

SABIN SAMEED IAS
Director, I&PRD, Keralam

The Media Handbook 2026 serves as a reliable bridge connecting the media, administration, and citizens. As a comprehensive directory, it provides up-to-date contact details and vital Information to keep everyone connected and informed about public services and the media. I encourage journalists, officials, and the general public to make daily use of this resource. The information compiled in this handbook is the result of dedicated, time-bound work, with every effort made to include the most complete detalls available. To access real-time updates and changes, please refer to our official mobile application. I am confident that this handbook will prove extremely useful to all.
